Our Approach

We believe that academic success is driven by outstanding pastoral care and a vibrant and well-rounded education.

A focus on the individual needs of each child is central to our approach. Small class sizes with dedicated teachers nurture, inspire and stretch students, giving them a chance to unearth their talents and truly know themselves. Our open and calm environment gives them the space, confidence and mindset to work to their full potential.

We have a dedicated SEN department with a fantastic reputation for their pioneering work. Neurodiversity is part of the rich and eclectic world we live and all the better for it. We believe that embracing and adapting to this diversity should just be an integral part of any school's approach.

We celebrate and champion the diversity of people, aiming to offer our students a rich and varied curriculum and opportunities to experience and explore diverse skills and interests. As an independent school, we welcome the opportunity to enrich our curriculum, encouraging students to follow their own path, whether it's a traditional academic one, creative arts, technology or horticulture. Placing huge value on co-curricular activities, we actively develop a rich timetable of activities that above and beyond offering new skills and knowledge, inspire great friendships and instil a strong sense of belonging.

A well-rounded education teaches students a wealth of brilliant life skills, from creative thinking, agility, and resilience to leadership, collaboration, and emotional intelligence – all essential in guiding their growth into good citizens and life-long learners.

Senior Leadership Structure

Living in Oxfordshire

Whilst Oxfordshire and the Cotswolds are beloved and popular with so many, we know that not everyone will have had first-hand experience of it, so this is a short introduction to the area.

Oxfordshire offers a wonderful quality of life, blending picturesque countryside with the vibrancy of a historic and culturally rich city. With charming villages to explore, walks in the Cotswolds to enjoy, the county provides something for everyone. The area is particularly attractive to families seeking a balanced lifestyle with access to excellent amenities.

Oxford itself is a world-renowned city, known for its beautiful architecture and prestigious university. It's a place where tradition meets innovation — from centuries-old libraries and colleges to cutting-edge research and technology hubs. The city boasts a wide range of independent shops, cafes, and restaurants, as well as theatres, museums, and galleries. Oxford is committed to being a zero carbon city by the year 2040 and has implemented many initiatives to achieve this goal, including Low Traffic Neighbourhood (LTN) schemes, Oxford's Low Emission Zone and the Energy Superhub.

Transport links are another major advantage of life in Oxfordshire. With excellent rail and road connections, you can easily access London, Birmingham, and other major cities. London is just an hour by train to Paddington or Marylebone, while the M40 and A34 provide convenient routes for drivers. For international travel, Heathrow Airport is just over an hour away and Birmingham International Airport is also easily accessible.

Above all, Oxfordshire offers a strong sense of community. From local festivals and farmers' markets to active sports clubs and cultural events, there are many opportunities to connect with others and feel at home. For those taking on a senior role in education, this welcoming and dynamic environment is the perfect backdrop for both professional growth and personal wellbeing.

Oxfordshire is also ideally situated for exploring a wealth of cultural and historical attractions. Just a short drive away is Blenheim Palace, a UNESCO World Heritage Site and birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill. The nearby Cotswold towns of Woodstock, Witney, and Burford offer characterful high streets while Stratford-upon-Avon — the birthplace of Shakespeare — is perfect for a day out steeped in history and theatre.
